Her Mountain

We are excited to announce the next step in how we will support our female student-athletes at Edge School moving forward.

Introducing Her Mountain – a female health & performance program designed to support, empower and elevate our female student-athletes on and off the field of play.

Led by Brady Greening, Her Mountain is rooted in belonging, identity, confidence, sisterhood, knowledge, voice, strength, growth and becoming.

"My goal is that every female at Edge feels like she belongs here, has a voice here, and grows stronger because of the community around her," says Brady.

Because when girls are supported properly, they don't just compete – they thrive.

Her Mountain – For Her. With Her. Beside Her.

Plenty more to come as we officially kick off the program next week on February 10!
